Quiet Room

What happens here?

Students can access the quiet room to support regulation and have a moment to themselves.

Within the quiet room students have access to sensory aids, weighted blankets and changeable lighting to support their individual needs.

What can I do here?

You can take time to relax, calm down and use the sensory aids to help you feel better.

Top tip

It's okay to ask for a break if you need some time to yourself.

This is a safe and peaceful space where you can relax and feel calm.

Outside Area

What happens here?

At the side of the school, we have access to a small courtyard for outdoor games.

This is also where we keep the school guinea pigs during the day time.

What can I do here?

You can enjoy outdoor games, fresh air and spending time outside during break times.

Top tip

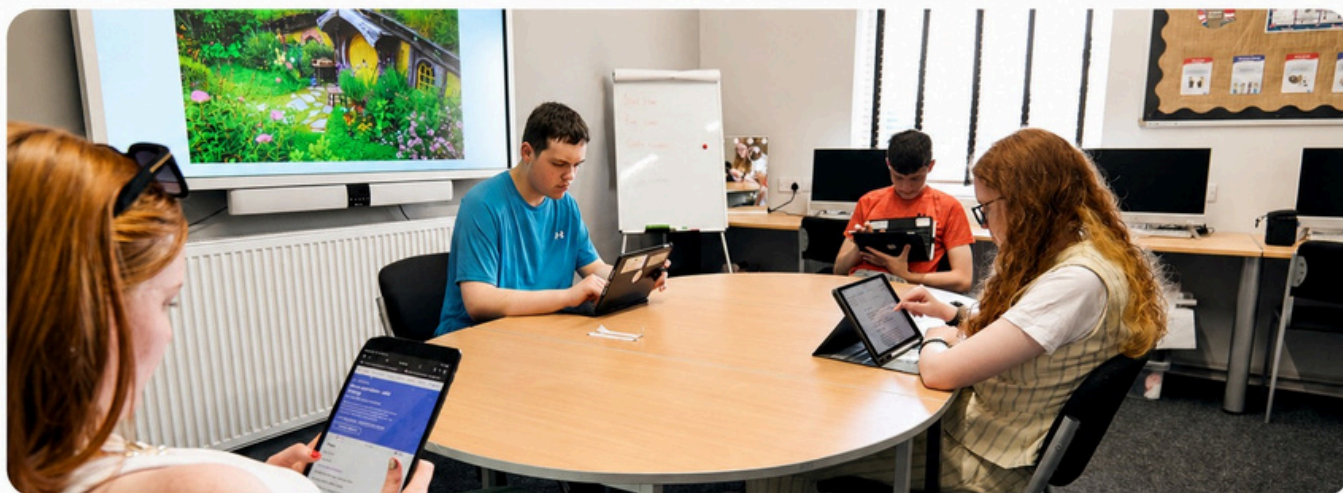

Dress for the weather and make sure you bring a coat when it is cold or wet.

We respect our outdoor area and look after all living things.

Classrooms

What happens here?

We have 8 classrooms within the school each used for specific subjects. Our rooms are set up specifically for small groups with groups of 4-5 students.

Technology

Students have access to their own iPads and other IT equipment to support learning.

Small groups

We learn in a calm and friendly environment where everyone can feel comfortable and supported.

Break Space

What happens here?

During break times students can access the main social space on the first floor. There is a large table where students and staff have lunch together and play games. There is also a pool table, outside space and the sports hall that can be accessed during break times throughout the day.

What can I do here?

You can have lunch with friends and staff, play games, use the pool table and enjoy time in the social space.

Top tip

Be kind, include everyone and look after the space so that everyone can enjoy it.

We are kind, respectful and make break time a great time for everyone.

≡ The Sport Hall ≡

What happens here?

The Sports hall is used for our PE lessons, break time activities and sports lessons. Staff will supervise break time activities in the Sports Hall.

We keep everyone safe and active.

Listen to staff, follow instructions and show good sportsmanship.

Top tip

Remember to bring a water bottle to keep hydrated!

Be active, have fun and try your best!

≡ The School Kitchen ≡

What happens here?

The School Kitchen is in the main social area of the school. The kitchen is used for cooking lessons, to develop independent skills, and is also used for school lunches.

We learn life skills

We learn how to cook, prepare food and work as a team. This helps us become more independent.

We eat together

The kitchen is also used for school lunches. We enjoy mealtimes together in a friendly and relaxed space.

We keep everyone safe and active.

Listen to staff, follow instructions and show good sportsmanship.

We respect the kitchen and keep it clean for everyone to enjoy.

Break Time Activities

During break times students can take part in the following activities:

Football

Hockey

Basket Ball

Badminton

Card Games

Board Games

Students also have the option to have quiet time if they wish.

Summary

We provide a hot lunch each day, with healthy snacks at break times. Students can bring a packed lunch or request a sandwich. Quiet eating spaces are available if needed.
